Orléans is located in the center of France, at the heart of the Loire Valley, and has a rich history as the main city on the northernmost section of the Loire

The surrounding region is teeming with castles, churches, abbeys and archeological sites.

On a day to day point of view, you will find in Orléans and its conurbation all the usual amenities (cinemas, concert halls, sports facilities...), accessible via the city's transport network (buses, 2 tramway lines).

Moreover, Paris is only an hour away from Orléans, with several trains a day.
