

Objectives of the University Diploma (DU)

Preparation for integration into international organizations and central banks

Additional specialization through the analysis of public policies (fiscal, monetary, macroprudential, commercial, or environmental policies) within a macroeconomic approach focused on sustainable development

Target audience: professionals or students holding a Master's degree (Master 2 or equivalent) and/or pursuing a Ph.D.

Key advantages of the program:

- Lectures from renowned international experts,
- Preparation for interviews and entrance tests for international institutions
- Innovative training, mostly conducted in English and proposed in a hybrid mode

Duration: 4 weeks of training from November 18, 2024 to January 31, 2025

Programme : Cutting-edge knowledge and training

Module 1: Macroeconomics and Microeconomics

Module 2: Development Economics and International Trade

Module 3: Environmental and Resource Economics and Policies

Module 4: Macroeconomic Policies: Theory and Applications

Module 5: Public Policy Evaluation

Module 6: Sharing Experience and Preparation for Joining International Institutions

Conferences, individual projects

Applications can be submitted via the e-candidat platform: <https://ecandidat.univ-orleans.fr>

Application period: September 16 to October 30, 2024.

Program Directors:

Jean-Louis COMBES (LEO-UCA) and Camélia TURCU (LEO-UO)

Scientific Contact: camelia.turcu@univ-orleans.fr

SEFCO Contact: sefco@univ-orleans.fr / Tel : 02 38 41 71 80

Standard Fee: 3 250€

Specific Fee (LEO and/or UO members): 1500€

Further Information and Registration:

www.univ-orleans.fr/sefco

Location

Université d'Orléans
(UO)